

Advancing Creditors' and Property Owners' Rights in Commercial and Bankruptcy Matters and Beyond

Southern California
Legal Profiles

Marshall Goldberg
Managing Partner

AWARDS AND ACHIEVEMENTS

- The Equipment Leasing and Finance Association (ELFA) has honored Goldberg with its "Excellence in Leasing Award." This is ELFA's highest attorney tribute, its recipients selected by a vast national network of in-house and outside counsel representing the finance industry.
- Goldberg has been named a Southern California Super Lawyer for three consecutive years.
- Goldberg developed and manages ELFA's legal website, including its online national compendium of legal issues facing the financial services sector as well as its Listserv electronic forum.
- Glass & Goldberg is known statewide for its professional excellence and is the first firm to appear before the entire U.S. Bankruptcy Appellate Panel of the Ninth Circuit.

As Seen In... Forbes, December 5, 2011

Glass & Goldberg

Industry giants like GE Capital Corporation, PNC Bank, The CIT Group, De Lage Landen and Wells Fargo Equipment Finance could choose any legal powerhouse to preserve and defend their rights in real estate and personal property disputes, transactions and related matters. Yet these and other leading companies place their continued faith in the Los Angeles-based firm of Glass & Goldberg. With 25 years' success in commercial litigation, bankruptcy, regulatory compliance, eminent domain, franchise finance and more, Glass & Goldberg is known nationwide for its responsive, cost-effective approach and impressive record of achievement.

A Powerful Advocate

Glass & Goldberg preserves and enforces its clients' rights in complex transactions and contentious disputes. It understands the nuances of commercial law, including tangible and intangible rights, intellectual property, promissory notes, chattel paper, leases, syndications, portfolio acquisitions and more.

In these areas, Glass & Goldberg brings both unsurpassed expertise and an uncommon degree of personal attention, integrity, diligence and effort to each client matter.

"We are very 'results oriented' in our work," says managing partner and co-founder Marshall Goldberg. "We protect our clients' interests through document drafting, uncovering fraud, restructuring debt, pursuing litigation and utilizing our extensive understanding of bankruptcy. We are well prepared and fiercely determined to meet any challenge on our clients' behalf."

"We highly value Marshall Goldberg as unique (and, indeed, second to none in the industry) because of his partnership approach to our relationship and the practice of law. Marshall puts heightened value on the exchange of ideas, strategic insights and shared objectives over the next matter or the next billable hour."

—General Counsel and Deputy General Counsel
Fortune 500 global financial services company

"I have known and worked with Marshall Goldberg on a number of legal projects benefiting all members of the Equipment Leasing and Finance Association, the national trade organization representing the $521 billion U.S. equipment leasing and finance industry. There is not a more highly respected and dedicated member of our organization or our industry."

—Ralph Petta, Chief Operating Officer
Equipment Leasing and Finance Association

"I have been practicing for 40 years and have met very few attorneys who could provide us with such high-quality representation as Glass & Goldberg and Marshall Goldberg. I wish I could clone them for the other 49 states."

—Allen P. Lev, General Counsel, KIN Properties, Inc.

From left: Steven Glass, Patti Woods-Goldberg, Marshall Goldberg and Edmund Sherman

Glass &
Goldberg

21700 Oxnard Street, Suite 430 | Woodland Hills, CA 91367-3655 | 818-888-2220
mgoldberg@glassgoldberg.com | www.glassgoldberg.com